

THE NEOLIFE RANKS EXPLAINED

Each rank of distributor brings you more exciting benefits! Rank is calculated using your QPV. However, every rank has a minimum PPV of 100 each month. This is to make sure that you are still actively selling to customers and trying to grow your business rather than just sitting back and letting your downline do all the work. Most of your QPV will come from your downline.

1. Distributor

This is the first rank and the easiest to qualify for.

How to qualify

All you need to do after registering is ensure that you pay your annual renewal fee. Simply fill out form in the link below and send it to your upline.

Perks

- You are now able to purchase wholesale at the distributor price (DP) and save around 20%.
- You can access information about your team in order to better manage your business.
- NeoLife frequently offers incentive for good performance that you can now compete for.
- You can attend distributor training events.
- You will receive more publications.
