GUIDE FOR: NeoLife App Users

GUIDE FOCUS: How to enrol new distributors

STEP 1 – Getting started

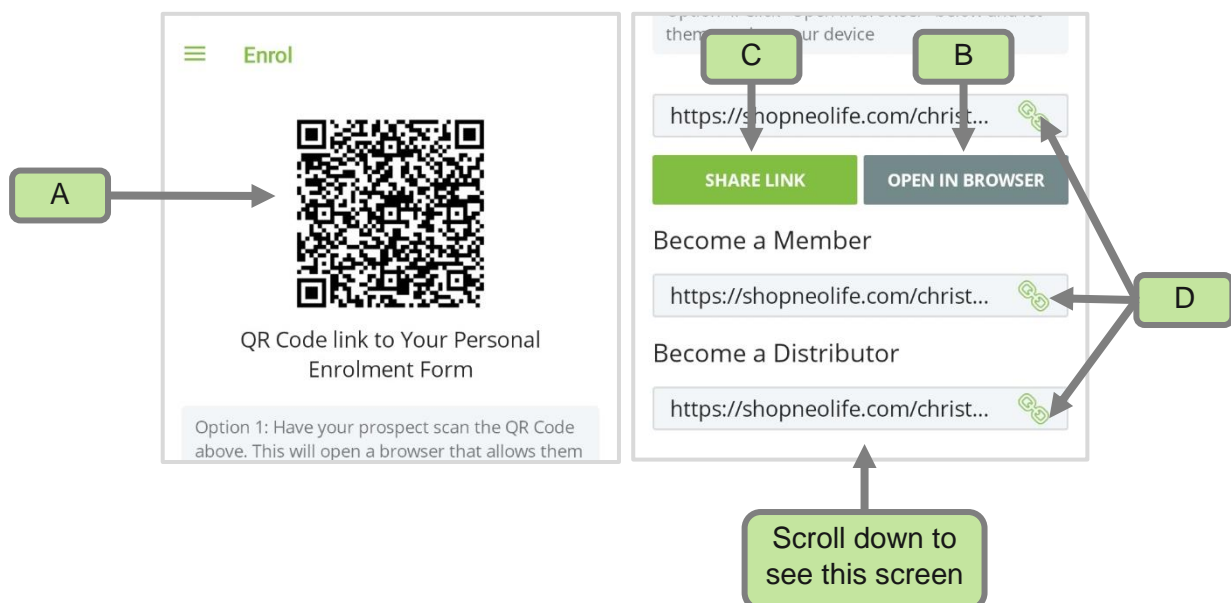

First download the NeoLife App from the app store. Sign in and tap the enrol button at the bottom of your screen.

STEP 2 – Sending a link

To enrol a distributor, you must send them a link. This can be done in one of three ways:

- (A) If they are with you in person, have them scan the QR Code with a QR scanner
- (B) Let them enrol using your device (tap Open in Browser)
- (C) You may share a link with them using the “share link” button
- (D) You may share a link with them using chain icon. The chain icons copy the link to your clipboard so you can paste it into a message or email.

STEP 3 – Getting started

Next select your region. You may then choose in what way you would like to sign up. A member gets 5-15% off some products. A distributor can save 20% on NeoLife products and earn income by owning a Nutrition Start-up business. The sign up process is the same for both of them.

STEP 4 – Starter Kits

As a distributor you will need products to sell to your friends. These can be found in the NeoLife starter packs. The packs contain a variety that are also extremely useful for your own personal use. The items are grouped according to what they do, such as the skin care pack seen below. You are required to purchase one of these before you can move on so now is a good time to do some research into what you'd like to sell. Once you've made a decision add the pack to cart and tap next.

STEP 5 – Details

The final step is to add your personal details, such as address, birthday and payment information. You also need to specify how the order should be shipped. In part 3, choose whether you would prefer your order to be shipped or if you'd like to collect your package in person from a NeoLife depot or Pep Cell, Pep Store or Pep Home. This process is the same as using the NeoLife shop. Only the shipping option is shown. For more information, please use this guide for more detailed instructions.
